FRESH NEW CONCEPT -- EATERY PRONTO CAFÉ JOINS CITADEL OUTLETS IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES—August 2, 2012—Citadel Outlets’ dining options now includes Pronto Café, a new ready-to serve eatery, located across from H&M and the Nike Factory Store. Open since April, the restaurant serves freshly made sandwiches, salads, desserts and baked goods.

Items from the menu include a strawberry poppy seed salad with chicken, an assortment of sandwiches made with a choice of whole wheat, sourdough or Chapati bread baked fresh daily, pizza and café beverages, most notably, Illy gourmet espresso and a medium Italian Roast coffee blend.

Craig Guest, Director of Operations for Pronto Café said of the new restaurant: “Pronto Café emphasizes convenience and quality designed not only to serve the local shopper, but also appeal to the international traveler that visits Citadel Outlets.”

The center’s Marketing Director, Traci Markel added: “Pronto Café is a delightful addition to the Citadel Outlets experience because it offers a great menu of the finest in pre-made foods in a fast-paced environment where shoppers don’t have the time to wait for a custom order.”
